

Welcome all

Written by Administrator
Saturday, 04 December 2010 20:46

I'm really happy to inaugurate this site, totally new and different from previous ones. Inside I will always be there to answer your questions.

Those who wish to discuss with me will have a new channel, direct and rapid, for advice and suggestions, always the sign of growth and constructive dialogue.

Karate is one of the disciplines practiced in the world, all of us if we could compact to be going in one direction, we can achieve results never before achieved: visibility, media interest, sponsors and "weight" in the decisions taken by sports bodies (possibility of entering the Olympics).

I believe that our sport deserves it, we all deserve it!

We provide all our ideas, knowledge and skills.

It 'now time to start .